TOURS AND TRAVEL

COOLANGATTA ESTATE

26TH – 28TH FEBRUARY 2020

Coolangatta Estate, on the shores of the Shoalhaven River, boasts an amazing historic village. Painstakingly restored, the Estate dates back to 1822 when Alexander Berry, a Scottish born surgeon, merchant and explorer was given a land grant of 10,000 acres and 100 convicts to establish the first settlement on the South coast of NSW. The spacious grounds and gardens and unique accommodation provide a great venue for our stay and the Estate's Vineyard has won over 450 awards!

The Illawarra and Shoalhaven Coasts offer spectacular beaches and rugged headlands with a backdrop of rolling green hills and lush grazing country. Our return to Sydney is over Cambewarra and Barrengarry Mountains, Morton National Park and the Southern Highlands.

Other highlights include:

- Illawarra Coast and Wollongong
- Kiama, Gerringong, Gerroa and Berry
- Jervis Bay Dolphin Watch Cruise
- Seafood picnic lunch at Green Patch in Jervis Bay National Park
- Huskinson, Vincentia, Hyams Beach
- Shoalhaven Heads & Nowra
- Visits to Kangaroo Valley and Fitzroy Falls
- Moss Vale and Berrima

Cost per person is $695.00 and includes all meals and admissions. Single Supplement is $100.00. (Coolangatta Estate Ph: 4448-7131).
