YOUNG CHERRY FESTIVAL

26TH - 28TH NOVEMBER 2019

3 DAY TOUR

Good old fashioned country hospitality and picturesque rural scenery make Young a great place to visit year round, but the town really comes to life during the cherry festival each summer. Apart from being Australia's cherry capital, there is a diverse range of agriculture and horticulture as well as a rich history which combine to make Young such an attractive destination. The legacy of the gold fields in the form of some lovely heritage buildings is evident, as is the prosperity flowing from the surrounding rural community.

Our accommodation for this tour is the 4 star Young Federation Motor Inn and includes delicious dinners and full cooked breakfasts.

Highlights of the tour include:

- * Picnic lunch at the National Trust Hamilton Humes Cooma Cottage
- * Visits to several orchards for the freshest of local cherries & other fruit, you can even pick your own straight from the tree.
- * Poppas Fudge Factory for local jams, chutneys and chocolate.
- * Chinamans Dam and Lambing Flat Tribute Gardens
- * Picnic lunch and wine tasting at the Grove Estate
- * Award winning Cowra Japanese Gardens
- * The P.O.W. Theatre and Olympic Park Rose Garden at Cowra
- * Bathurst and the Blue Mountains

Cost per person is $645.00 including all meals and admissions. Single supplement is $160.00. (Young Federation Motor Inn Ph: 02 6382 5644)
